About the Musicians...

Technical Sergeant Carolyn Sargent is from Pequannock, NJ. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Music Education from Glassboro State College, and enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1983. At her first base, McGuire Air Force Base, NJ, she served as a soloist principal clarinetist and bass clarinetist in the Concert Band and Woodwind Quintet. She has performed with many orchestras and bands in both New Jersey and Ohio. At Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, she serves as bass clarinetist and Non-Commissioned Officer In Charge of the Kittyhawk Clarinet Quartet.

Staff Sergeant Wendy R. Harvey is a native of Wadsworth, Ohio. She received her Bachelor of Music degree in clarinet performance from Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, and her Master of Music degree in clarinet performance from The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, where she studied with Dr. Alan P. Squire and Mr. James Pyne, respectively. Sergeant Harvey has performed with the Berea Summer Theatre, the Columbus Women's Symphony, the Westerville Civic Orchestra, the Heisey Wind Ensemble, and is currently teaching privately in Kettering, Ohio.

Staff Sergeant Tyler Selden grew up in Williamsville, New York. He went to the State University of New York at Buffalo where he received his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees in music performance. Tyler's professional credits include performances with the Amherst Symphony Orchestra, the Amherst Saxophone quartet, and the Erie County Wind Ensemble, as well as an appearance as guest conductor with the Salem Community Band. He also serves on the faculty at Wittenburg University. He enlisted in the United States Air Force in August 1994 and completed a tour with the United States Air Force Band of Liberty, Hanscom Air Force Base, Massachusetts, before beginning his current assignment with the United States Air Force Band of Flight in September 1999. In addition to his performance duties, Sergeant Selden serves in the Band of Flight's supply section as the Instrument Repair Technician.

Airman First Class Kristin Younkin is a clarinetist with The United States Air Force Band of Flight Concert Band and Kittyhawk Clarinet Quartet, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. She began studying clarinet in the fifth grade and graduated from Oak Ridge High School, Oak Ridge, Tennessee in 1993. She continued her studies at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee where she received her Bachelor of Music degree. She also earned a Master of Music at The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Airman Younkin enlisted in the United States Air Force in July 2000 and began her current assignment with the Band of Flight in September 2000. In addition to her performance duties, Airman Younkin serves as a member of the unit's publicity staff. In her spare time, Airman Younkin enjoys tennis, softball, running, and traveling.
